Hershey, Pa.

Hershey, located in south central Pennsylvania, was founded in 1903 by chocolate entrepreneur Milton S. Hershey. Since the completion of the chocolate factory in 1905, the town has become home to 13,000 residents and welcomes thousands of people each year to its many cultural and entertainment offerings.

In addition to The Hershey Company, Mr. Hershey also founded Hershey Entertainment & Resorts® Company, which includes Hersheypark®, and the M.S. Today, Hershey also includes a theater offering Broadway and other professional productions; a museum; a botanical garden; numerous sports and entertainment facilities; and a world-renowned medical center.
